SEPT.-OCT. 2013

Garland Civic Theatre's Go Back For Murder

Join Garland Civic Theatre for another Agatha Christie mystery to open their 2013-2014 season. Carla Le Merchant learns a disturbing family secret. Her mother died in prison after being convicted for poisoning her father, and left behind a letter professing her innocence. Believing this to be true, Carla is determined to clear her mother's name. Enlisting the help of Justin Fogg, the son of her mother's defense lawyer, Carla searches out all the players from her tragic history and brings them back to the scene of the crime to uncover the truth. Suspects, secrets, and red herrings abound in this thrilling new production – considered to be Agatha Christie's finest piece of theatre! Tickets are $15-$22 and are available online at GarlandArtsBoxOffice.com, at the Granville Arts Center box office, or by calling 972-205-2790.

Performances are August 22 & 29 at 7:30 pm, August 23, 24, 30, 31, September 6, 7, 13, & 14 at 8 pm and August 25, September 1, 8 & 14 at 2:30 pm. For more information visit www.GarlandCivicTheatre.org.

It is likely that the very earliest music ever created was for dance; the first time our distant ancestors banged on a log with a stick, someone undoubtedly broke into the Neanderthal shuffle! Things have come a long way. From ballet to break dancing, music and dance are now inseparable partners. Many great composers have done their finest work when inspired by the beauty of dance. Some, like Stravinsky with Petrushka, Delibes with Coppelia, or Copland with Rodeo, have written full-length ballets intended for virtuoso dancers. Other compositions, like Rachmaninoff's Symphonic Dances, Dvorak's Slavonic Dances, or Bartok's Dance Suite, use the compelling rhythms of dance in works intended for concert performance. For the 2013-2014 Concert Season, Garland Symphony Orchestra will bring to you all these masterworks and more, plus music for the dance by Tchaikovsky, Ravel, Kodaly, Verdi, and many more. It's music that sets your soul afire and your feet a-twitchin'! So waltz over to the computer, the fax, or the phone, and get your tickets today! All performances are in the Brownlee Auditorium of the Granville Arts Center at 8 pm. To purchase tickets call 972-205-2790 or visit GarlandArtsBoxOffice.com.

Set in a small Texas town in Anytime, USA, Daddy's Dyin' concerns the reunion of a family gathered to await the imminent death of their patriarch, who has recently suffered a physically as well as mentally disabling stroke. In essence, however, it is not the story of the impending demise of the father or of the drafting of his will, but of a rebirth of the spirit of the family unit. Without becoming ponderous, losing a sense of humor or pandering to timeworn clichés about Texans or Texas drawls, the story is fast and delicious, with funny moments, tense moments, touching moments, and characters you care about.

Tickets are $15-$22 and are available at the Granville Arts Center box office, by calling 972-205-2790, or online at GarlandArtsBoxOffice.com. For more performance information visit www.GarlandCivicTheatre.org.

Candy & Friends present Paul Salos

The third annual "Candy and Friends" benefit concert for brain tumor patients will be September 14 at 7 pm in the Brownlee Auditorium. This year, "Candy and Friends" present Paul Salos, a Garland resident, who will be bringing an evening of Frank Sinatra music, accompanied by the Celebration Jazz Orchestra from First Baptist Church. Mr. Salos holds the distinction of being a finalist on the hit television talent competition, "America's Got Talent." Proceeds from the concert benefit Legacy Brain Foundation of Dallas, a local organization that assists brain cancer patients and their families. Legacy also is involved in promoting awareness and educating the public about brain tumors, their warning signs, and other issues surrounding the disease. The evening promises to be one of outstanding Sinatra music we all know and love, supporting an outstanding cause. Tickets are $15-$25 and will be available at the door or by calling 214-621-5358. To learn more about Legacy Brain Foundation and its work, visit www.legacybrainfoundation.com. For more information about the concert, call Candy Wilson at 214-621-5358.
